Then to see and know and love hor, With our Saviour evermore.

BY HER FAMILY.

IEE.—In sad, but loving remembrance for our darling mother, HENRIETTA LME, who entered into eternal rest one year ago, December 6, 1913. EY HER CHILDREN.

Kipling Will Describe 'Making of New Army'

Rudyard Kipling is to write a series of articles for the Richmond Times-Dispatch and other international News Service papers on "The Making of a New Army." He has visited the principal army camps in Great Britain, where more than 1,000,000 volunteers are now under the most severe training—the "six

000,000 volunteers are now under the most severe training—the "six months of hard work" which Lord Kitchener considers essential before raw recruits are "of the slightest value ns soldiers in action."

Mr. Kipling has reproduced with all the vivid force of which he is master the scenes he has witnessed, but his articles go much deeper than mere description of those vast and crowded camps which will shortly march to the greatest buttlefields the world ever has seen.

These articles will appear exclusively in the Richmond Times-Dis-sively in the Richmond Times-Dispatch and other Sunday newspapers taking the international News Ser-vice throughout the United States. The first of these articles will be published next Sunday.
